Exam Development Process

---

- Develop Exam Test Plans
- Verify, update and review exam references
- Review OCCSTDs
- Verify and update exam bank for each paygrade
- Develop new exam items
- Review, edit and draft graphics
- Draft advancement exams for each paygrade

* *Not all tasks are done at all panels**

Who should volunteer? (Part 1)

---

- Chiefs, senior chiefs and master chief petty officers on active-duty, full-time support (FTS), and reservists currently on active-duty for special work (ADSW) may take part in the process that enables the Navy to advance the most qualified and rating-knowledgeable Sailors.

Who should volunteer? (Part 2)

Restrictions:

- No relative, whether by blood or marriage, eligible for advancement in the rating for the AERR in which they are applying. (NW)
- Be at least a “Must Promote” on their latest FITREP and have no adverse FITREP in the last 3 years. “Must Promote” requirement can be waived automatically if strongly endorsed by CMC and CO. (W)
- Be within Navy body composition standards and have passed the most recent PFA. (W)
- Not have a Fleet Reserve, retirement, or High Year Tenure (HYT) date within one year of the AERR adjourning. (W)
- Have active security clearance, as required by the rating. (NW)

W – Waivers are granted

NW – No waivers are granted

Why should I volunteer?

---

- AERR events provide an opportunity for selected rating subject matter experts (SME) from fleet and shore-based commands to impact sailorization by affecting the careers of every test-taker in the Navy.
